

Name: _____

Excerpt from "American Revolution, Part II"

But not all colonists were ready for a complete break with Britain. Hundreds of thousands were still loyal to Britain and its king. They opposed independence. They were known as Loyalists or Tories. Hundreds of thousands of other colonists were neutral. They were not sure if they wanted a complete break with Britain.

1. According to the passage, how many colonists were not Loyalists or Patriots? _____

2. What detail from the text proves your answer to the answer above? _____

3. According to the passage, the Loyalists were loyal to whom? _____

4. What detail from the text proves your answer to question #3? _____

Name: _____

Excerpt from "American Revolution, Part II"

But not all colonists were ready for a complete break with Britain. Hundreds of thousands were still loyal to Britain and its king. They opposed independence. They were known as Loyalists or Tories. Hundreds of thousands of other colonists were neutral. They were not sure if they wanted a complete break with Britain.

1. According to the passage, how many colonists were not Loyalists or Patriots? _____

2. What detail from the text proves your answer to the answer above? _____

3. According to the passage, the Loyalists were loyal to whom? _____

4. What detail from the text proves your answer to question #3? _____
